Documentary Post Production Service
PRESENTATION

Creative Services

In documentary filmmaking, story matters most.

When faced with the reality of subjects in the field, expectations are not always met. Here we assist creatively to bring structure to the film, and tell a story worth telling.

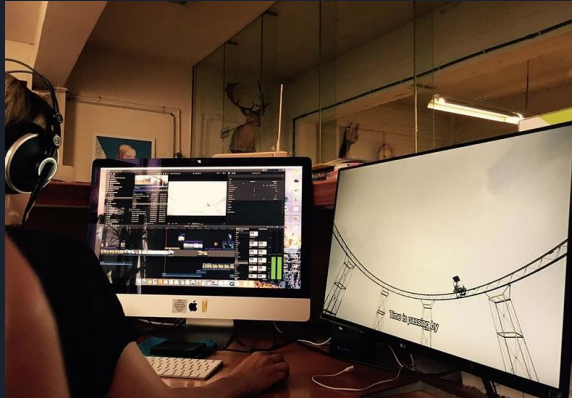

- Untangle Footage
- Story Structure
- Research
- Save Reshoot Costs
- Timeline Editing
- Story Supervisor (part-time)
- Handpicked Editors That Match Your Project

Editing Service

(offline) Editing is the foundation of post-production service, and our focus.

Our recommended package for best results consists of 3 key people:

- Assistant editor to load and sort footage, clean the timeline, and backup.
- Main Editor to build a montage on the timeline.
- Story Supervisor to oversee the story progress and jump in with creative adjustments.

Editors

We have a database of Belgian tax rebate eligible Editors who are fluent in English, French, Dutch, as well as other European and Asian languages.

We match editors specifically to your project, with a fitting resume and personality, to ensure a proper work ethic and smooth collaboration.

Location

Flexibility

Our main administration office is located at Franklin Rooseveltlaan 349, Ghent, Belgium

Our preference goes to setting up a convenient and customised editing workstation per project in either Ghent, Antwerpen, Brussels or abroad at an affordable rate near our clients or editors home base.

We appreciate to consider cost efficiency, privacy, and the personal needs of editors and clients.
